

Spot the signs of criminal exploitation

Children are being groomed and forced into criminal activity. It can include moving drugs, theft and deceptive crimes. Knowing the signs can help to intervene early and keep children safe.

Some facts

- Boys and girls are both at risk
- Children tend to be living at home
- Children are being targeted in every area of the UK

Signs

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| → Frequently going missing from home or school             | → Anxiety/distress over mobile phone                        |
| → Coming home after missing episodes looking unwell        | → Unexplained money, mobile phones, clothes or electronics  |
| → Being found with drugs                                   | → Increased interest in money                               |
| → Being found in a different area                          | → Increased alcohol or drug use                             |
| → Increasingly disruptive or aggressive at school and home | → Having friends or associates who they are secretive about |

Contact the Police

If you think a young person is in immediate danger, call the Emergency Services on 999.

Contact Pace

Parents can access support and advice from Pace about how to intervene early, liaise with local services and put measures in place to keep children safe from exploitation.

www.paceuk.info

Worried
about your
child?

Spot the signs of Child Sexual Exploitation

Children are often groomed into believing they are in a relationship with the exploiter. They can be manipulated into sexual acts through blackmail, threats and coercion. Children may be given items such as money, drugs and phones. The offenders can make the child feel protected, loved or dependent on them. Children can be exploited online without ever meeting the offender.

Some facts

- Children can be targeted from any location or background
- Offenders can be male, female, groups or individuals
- Victims of CSE rarely disclose their abuse

Signs

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| → Frequently going missing from home or school | → Anxiety/distress over mobile phone                       |
| → Being secretive                              | → Unexplained money, mobile phones, clothes or electronics |
| → Physical signs of abuse                      | → Increased alcohol or drug use                            |
| → Changes in mood or behaviour                 | → New friends or associates who they are secretive about   |
| → Unexplained absences from home or school     | → Unexplained injuries or marks                            |

Contact the Police

If you think a young person is in immediate danger, call the Emergency Services on 999.

Contact Pace

Parents can access support and advice from Pace about how to intervene early, liaise with local services and put measures in place to keep children safe from exploitation.

www.paceuk.info

Worried
about your
child?